MAN OF LA MANCHA

Set Design: Tom Ferris • Musical Direction: James Geer

2017 Pulsar Award Winner

Best Lead Actor in a Musical: Martin Underhill

Female Version of The Odd Couple (October 2016)

"Right down to the tiniest details — even a little thermostat on the wall — The Odd Couple was darling. We enjoyed it so much. Thanks for bringing laughter into our lives." —Connie

Happy Days: Malt Shop Memories (February 2017)

"What a lovely afternoon and performance! A delightful musical revue of the 1950s. Every performer gave their own special interpretation, and I would be hard pressed to pick a favorite song! Each one had a magical moment. We were quietly singing to ourselves—until the closing number when we were all welcomed to join in! The set and costumes sent us right back into the 50s and the band was wonderful." —Maggie

Man of La Mancha (May 2017)

"Outstanding production! The best show I've ever seen at Starlight. My regards to everyone involved, especially Marty. I really felt emotion at the end." —Michael

"Although I've seen this show two previous times, your production of Man of La Mancha was absolutely the best. The intricate set, props, costumes, and the wonderful actors all overseen by fantastic directors made this show a highlight for me this spring. Way to go, Starlight!" —Chris

From The Philadelphia Story in the 30s to Never Too Late in the 60s, One Slight Hitch (set in the 80s) is a nostalgic treat on the once-familiar theme of what happens to a seemingly happy, soon-to-be-wed bride when the ne'er-do-well ex-boyfriend shows up without warning to the horror of the bride's parents (played by Linda Granger and Chris Klaver) the morning of the big wedding.

"There's more than a touch of Neil Simon in the morose Mr. Black."

FARCE OF A HABIT

a. Jones hope wooten comedy

October 27-28 and November 3-5, 2017 Sunday show dessert only

By Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Wooten

Director: Michael Hays Assistant Director: Anna Maier Producer: Linda Granger

From the authors that brought Starlight Theatre the Futelle sisters trilogy, Hallelujah Girls, Red Velvet Cake War and Funny Little Thing Called Love. This Southern-fried comedy is centered around the Reel 'Em Inn, a rustic fishing lodge in the Ozarks of Arkansas. Comic fireworks explode when the Wilburn family is hosting a strange assortment of guests over a stormy weekend: a snobbish English talk-show host, a hapless bow-tied Midwesterner, a group of nuns housed in the barn, a vengeful ex-wife and, lurking among them all, a serial killer.
