Audience Comments, Reviews and Awards

I wanted to tell you how much we enjoyed the performance of Steel Magnolias on Friday. The cast was fantastic and I laughed and cried just as I knew I would. The four of us had a great time. Please extend our congratulations to both the cast and the crew for a fantastic performance and to the caterer for a delicious meal. Very much looking forward to the next performance. Best wishes to all. Carol

I brought a group of friends and family and we all laughed, cried and thoroughly enjoyed it. Another hit for Starlight. Kristine

We attended Steel Magnolia's and what a show it was! We were impressed with everything: the meal of Southern fried chicken and the quality of the actors. When I saw the movie, I cried when Shelby died and cried again at the play when she died. The angst displayed by 'M'Lynn wanting to "hit something" and the humor that brought smiles through the tears...priceless! Congratulations and thank you. We are looking forward to seeing what March will bring. One thing for certain: We'll be there. Thanks again. Tim

The Lansing State Journal awarded Thespies to Winifred Olds (posthumously) and Linda Granger for their performances in Steel Magnolias. Props and Set Dressing was also awarded to Mary Pomeroy and Diane Erley (posthumously) for Magnolias. Laura Croff Wheaton was awarded for her portrayal of Fairy May in The Curious Savage. Congratulations to all – you made us proud, and we will always hold Diane and Winifred dear in our hearts.

"The Curious Savage": What a WONDEFUL evening you and your actors gave us! The play was wonderful and the acting was GREAT. I LOVE to see such talented people share their gifts with others. You folks keep up the OUTSTANDING work! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Sincerely, Nancy
"Fantastic Fox" – "Golf farce crushes the comedy with solid writing, acting." City Pulse review. The review called the set "fantastic" and we couldn't agree more! Thanks to Paul Sisson and Bill Woodland for an amazing set! (pictured below)

 2013

by Jessie Jones,
 Nicholas Hope,
 Jamie Wooten

Directed by Linda M. Granger

This deliriously funny new Jones Hope Wooten comedy (Futelle sister trilogy and Red Velvet Cake War) is all about that four letter word: L-O-V-E. Under a full moon on this unpredictable night of romance, these four rollicking tales take you on an around-the-globe journey of unexpected and hilarious twists and turns: A slick, successful used car-selling Romeo (Michael Hays) in Dallas believes he's answering Cupid's call, only to realize too late he's wandered into a life-changing trap set by three fed-up 'Juliets' (Susan Chmurynsky, Susan DeRosa, Angela Dill). In Manhattan, a man (Chris Klaver) tries to battle his way out of a mid-life crisis with an ill-advised and elaborate marriage proposal. Unfortunately, it all goes wildly off track when his caterer passes out (Angela Dill), a singing telegram girl (Sarah Hauck) arrives and breaks into sobs rather than song, his ex-wife (Tarwyn Rouse) saunters in wearing nothing but a bathrobe and a covering super hero (Jason Carlen) inches nervously across his twelfth floor window ledge. In a rooftop London bistro, sparks fly when two strangers (Elizabeth Todd, Bob Murrell) surprisingly start to connect, only to be thwarted by a hyperactive American tourist (Rachel Mender) who's determined to be the center of attention and the unpredictable antics of an ancient waitress (Connie Curran-Oesterle) who wields a wicked sousaphone. And finally, the Hallelujah Girls, a group of fun-loving gals from Georgia (Janet Anderson, Leann Dethlefsen, Carol Ferris, Linda Granger, Jan Ross), say aloha to their wild sides as they accidentally crash a Hawaiian honeymoon in progress. By the time the evening is over and the moon works its magic, love will conquer all and your sides will ache from laughter! Others in the cast include: Rick Dethlefsen, Sarah & Darrin Fowler, Diana Lett, Jane Zussman and Charlie Martin.  Set in New York at the end of the "Swinging Sixties", Don Baker, the hero of his mother's children's books, "Donny Dark" has been blind since birth. His over protective mother is devastated when he leaves home and moves into his own apartment to claim his independence and pursue his songwriting ambitions. There he meets "actress" Jill Tanner - as free-spirited as a butterfly, moving on from experience to experience. A romance ensues and when his mother meets Jill, her controlling instincts go into overdrive with hilariously touching results. "A lovely play. It is funny when it means to be, sentimental when it is so inclined, and heartwarming." - New York Daily News

Nunsense

The Mega-Musical

a musical comedy by
 Dan Gaggin

* ALL SHOW DATES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE

May 9, 10, 16 & 17, 2014*

Directed by Dan Pappas

Musical Director: James Geer

Choreographer: Fran Norton

Auditions: January 3-4, 2014

The second longest running off-Broadway show in history has now been "SUPERSIZED" with seven additional characters, including Sister Julia – Child of God, a new musical number and enhanced dance numbers. An unfortunate convent cooking accident causes most of the order of the Little Sisters of Hoboken to die of botulism. In order to raise money to bury the four remaining sisters (temporarily stored in the freezer) the Sisters and Brothers of Hoboken (what's left of them) put on a riotous revue packed with hilarious, show-stopping song and dance numbers. Don't miss Nunsense – the MEGA musical!
